GUIDELINES FOR TOPIC LEVELS

Question and Answer Periods are encouraged in all sessions since they address participants' specific needs and are an excellent learning tool. Speakers may either accept questions during the presentation or wait until the end of the presentation.

EXECUTIVE TRACK (X)

Sessions in this track are designed for senior executives with extensive experience. These sessions may be an executive summary of new developments in an area of corporate financial management, and/or a high level technical discussion.

The material presented assumes the participants have a high level of experience. Practitioner attendee titles typically range from Director to CFO.

ADVANCED (A)

Sessions in this track are designed for executives with significant experience in the subject matter, but who are interested in new developments, a higher level of understanding and/or more detail understanding.

These sessions should not include any Basic introductory material.

INTERMEDIATE (I)

Sessions in this track are designed for general attendance by participants with a wide variety of experience levels. The subject matter should be designed for practical application and should not include more than a minimal amount of Basic material.

The majority of sessions fall into this category.

BASIC (B)

Sessions in this track are designed for participants with lower experience levels who are seeking a basic understanding of the subject matter. Some participants may have substantial business experience, but may not have experience in the session subject matter. Others may attend the session as a refresher.

Material presented should not go beyond the Intermediate level.
